INCLUSIVE LEADERSHIP I.C.U.

Uncover Leadership Readiness - Develop Leadership Mastery

Your high potentials will become high performers. Your established leaders, enlightened and inclusive leaders. Robyn's I.C.U Framework of workplace needs enhances participants' ability to listen, lead and communicate. This experience helps you cultivate a communication culture that is healthy and inclusive, increases engagement, eliminates silos, and reduces turnover.

OWNING IT!

From Invisible to Invaluable

Getting the best out of your best is the key to a successful organization. However, some of the most talented, and skilled individuals don't feel empowered to speak up & and share their value. Participants learn to own and assert their expertise, engage diverse communication styles, improve executive presence and become invaluable contributors to the workplace.

TAME THE NOTORIOUS N.B.G

Personal Branding & Executive Presence

Challenges are inevitable. But focusing on negative experiences causes undue stress and hampers performance and personal effectiveness. Scientists call this phenomenon, negativity bias. Robyn calls it The Notorious N.B.G (Negativity Bias Glitch). In this motivating, inspiring experience, participants learn techniques to deal with The Notorious N.B.G. and its cousin The Insidious Imposter Syndrome by developing a Personal Brand and learning to share it with confidence.

WHAT IF THE GREAT RESIGNATION WASN'T A PROBLEM BUT A GIFT?

Turn the Great Resignation into your opportunity for Recalibration.

In today's environment to retain, develop and recruit great talent, leaders have to be more mindful than ever about the way they engage; the way they connect; and the way they communicate.

Robyn is a communication expert, international keynote speaker, coach and consultant who for over 20 years has delivered learning experiences that help participants understand and connect, reduce burnout, increase engagement & productivity and avoid HR drama! Her customizable corporate programs and interactive keynotes are designed for maximum education, participation and motivation.

A "recovering" actor and writer for two daytime dramas, Robyn's experience in the entertainment industry plus her training as a certified Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) practitioner give her a powerful combination of fun, creative tools and fascinating scientific research that will maximize personal impact and deliver lasting results.
